

I wanted to comment on making the Wisconsin No Call law weaker. For those of us without caller ID, the No Call list lets us spend quality time with our children and families, especially during the dinner hour, without having to worry about calls we don't want to receive. I think the Wisconsin No Call law should be left alone.